Comber, Publicity Chairmap.

Secretary's Desk:

June tells me our dues are coming in kind of slow. Maybe we better all check and make sure we have sent ours in. The longer we put something off the quicker it is forgotten. Remember we need you as a member without members we are nothing.

PRESIDENT'S DESK:

I hate to remind people about dues but in a way it is a necessary evil so to speak. I have had lots of wonderful comments on our new medals so if you haven't ordered any yet better do it now, in fact order two so you can show both sides. I still haven't heard from any volunteers for our legal counsel. Am hoping within next 30 to 60 days someone will except our offer. We have almost every known occupation in our 600 members surprising not an attorney. I am hoping that a good many of our members will drop one of our Directors, Andrew Klitgaard a good will or get well card. I just received a letter from our Secretary telling me of Andy's illness. He has just got home after 2½ weeks in the hospital. A nicer guy you will never find, a real loyal I.N.A. member and a great exhibit competitor. We all wish him a good recovery so drop him a line. Well it won't be long now, we are fast approaching our spring show season with all its trappings and renewal of old friendships and getting them gems out of the mothballs. Its worth any collector's time to visit any of these area shows so make it a point to get out and visit your fellow collector. I received show fliers along with expense money (Play Money totalling $100) to attend the Mid-Iowa Coin A Rama at Boone, Iowa on April 8th & 9th, hoping to attend and thank them.

CLUB NEWS FROM AROUND THE STATE

MUSCATINE, IOWA:

Received a communique from Warren Allen concerning their coming spring show which has the full treatment of Bourse, Exhibits, and Auction. Anyone wishing to enter exhibits can contact the Port City Coin Club, P.O. Box 469, Muscatine, Iowa. The show is at the YWCA at the corner of Syca-more St. 100 Lot auction at 1:15 p.m.; refreshments available, door prizes. Club trophies and I.N.A. Best of Show for exhibits.

FORT MADISON, IOWA:

I religiously continue to receive their monthly bulletin. Father Jannsen who was their bulletin editor, was transferred to another parish which left them without an editor. I do notice a signature signed June Budd, Pro-Tem, could be they have an able replacement. Their meeting was held Feb. 13 at St. Joseph's Social Room. Cakes and coffee were served with a surprise in the pieces of cake. Entertainment by the President of the Keokuk club, Lee Marsh, along with the President of the Ft. Madison club, showing their exhibits and talking about them. The club also is preparing for their Spring Auction on April 9th. There will also be bourse dealers. The auction starts at 2:30 p.m. Refreshments also served. I received a notice of this show after going to press last month and offer apologies to the club.

KEOKUK, IOWA:

A kind letter from a wonderful person, Helen Wallace, who is now the President of the club, how about it. She extends an invitation for this coming fall Tri-sissippi banquet held jointly by the two clubs. They had an election of officers at January meeting with following results: Helen Wallace, President; Alfred Rickert, Vice-President; Harold W. Gray, Secretary-Treasurer; Wilfred Spring was appointed Historian. This group will also have a spring show at the Washington-Central School Gym. They will celebrate their 75th meeting at the March meeting. At the April meeting, they will hold a 2nd hobby nite, persons who have another hobby along with their coins will bring the hobby to the meeting. They are looking ahead to Nov. 18 and 19 to their big fall Hobby Show.

DAVENPORT, IOWA:

This group is planning on a coin quiz at the March meeting, prizes going to the five highest participants. Along with this they have a cash drawing each meeting. The March meeting is on the 2nd of the month at the Children's Library on 4th St., between Main and Brady.

FORT DODGE, IOWA:

A show flier and short note from Bob Lockwood one of our directors. The club is holding its 3rd Annual Convention at the Izaak Walton League Chapter House, 731 Exposition Drive, April 23rd, 9 a.m. till 5 p.m.; free admission, bourse tables, exhibits. General Chairman, Phil Nelson, 818 N. 21st St., Fort Dodge, Iowa. Bob mentions that everyone in the club who purchased our new medal are well pleased.

CEDAR RAPIDS, IOWA:

A communique from Leo Sears explaining the error about the Cedar Rapids club celebrating their 25th anniversary on Jan. 16 as mentioned in our last bulletin. Seems like the Coin Collector got things twisted. The article misprinted was about the 25 year club of the Cedar Rapids Gazette Newspaper holding their annual meeting and so things do get twisted. They held their February meeting at the YWCA. They held a member auction in which 24 members submitted coins for the auction.

RED OAK, IOWA:

A nice letter from Donna Norman relating the following. The Red Oak Club will sponsor its 3rd Annual Coin Show on March 11th and 12th in the Holiday Inn in Red Oak. Free admission and door prizes every hour. Show times: 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. Saturday and 10 a.m. till 6 p.m. Sunday. Exhibiting with trophies for 1st place, U.S. Gold, U.S. Silver, U.S. Copper, U.S. Paper, Foreign & Misc. I.N.A. Best of Show grand award. 1st place trophies awarded in Junior Division for Education, Originality and Rarity. Also in Junior Division ribbons will be awarded for 2nd place. Exhibitors contact, Edward Harper, 111 Hammond, Red Oak, Iowa 51566. Meals and refreshments available.
